

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But Sinclair must not become a propaganda broadcasting Company

I strongly request the FCC to investigate
Regards

Jean Cicognani